Peter Paul Wines and Young's Market Company Announce Agreement

April Tustin CA Peter Paul Wines and Young's Market Company are pleased to announce the partnership between our two companies to provide wines in three western states, California, Arizona and Hawaii. In 68 years since Young's Market Company decided to engage exclusively in the distribution and sales of wines and spirits, it has grown to become the fourth largest wine and spirits distributor in the United States with operations in California, Washington, Hawaii, Arizona, Alaska, Idaho, Oregon, Utah, Montana and Wyoming.

"Over the past two years Peter Paul Wines has been looking to expand the geographic coverage in the Western States" said Kelly Young, General Manager of Peter Paul Wines. Young's Market is one of the oldest and most established wine and spirits distributors in the Western Region. "The quality and experience of the Young's market sales team and their commitment to introducing and providing fine wines to the market was a perfect match for Peter Paul Wines and what we were looking for." continued Kelly

Peter Paul Wines is committed to producing wines of depth and character. By sourcing our grapes from proven vineyards of quality that produce highly regarded wines we have established ourselves in the Napa Valley and Sonoma Valley appellations. Our commitment to time honored winemaking techniques as well as the finest quality oak and aging process have helped to produce some of the finest wines from these appellations at an approachable price for wine lovers everywhere.
